

My brother

(Isaiah 40:29-31)

Remember Yahweh loves thee still,
Though hard it seem when times are ill,
For He Who watches shall not sleep
Nor slumber, but His saints will keep.
On eagle-spreading wings He bears,
Alone He leads, removes our cares,
That they who wait upon the LORD
Shall in His time gain His reward:
They shall mount up with eagle's wings
In strength renewed, to Him each sings.
Dear brother, whom in Truth we love,
May you gain strength from God above
Until that time we see His Son,
And in the earth His Will is done.

Nicholas White