

Contents

Vol. 81 No. 965 - October 2011

Publishing Editor's column	313	World watchman
David—the man after God's own heart		Shaun Maher	332
16. Doubtful decisions		News from the nations
17. The end of Saul		Joan Brooks	335
John Mitchell	314	Gibbon and Revelation
The faithful of old—studied by the young		5. The return of Christ to reign on the earth
Saul: a wasted life		Geoff Henstock	337
Mike Movassaghi	318	The sabbath
Answers to the ultimate questions: The story of Job		Jonathan Moore	340
4. "Who ever perished, being innocent?"		Your letters
Stephen Hill	322	The faithful of old	344
Who were the sons of God and the daughters of men?		After the Exile
Malcolm Edwards	324	John Boulton	344
Marrying and giving in marriage		Two deaths on a tree
Geoff Henstock	328	Tom McCarthy	348
Fruit trees as symbols in Scripture: The olive (3)		P.S.
David Green	330	Too much to say?
		Mark Vincent	351
		Scenes of Syria
		12. Halabiye
		Jeremy Thomas	XVI