

Bible Workshop: Readers' comments

Regarding Jesus's statement to his mother, "mine hour is not yet come" (Jno. 2:4), I feel that this should be linked with Mark 14:36, where Jesus first asks for the cup to be taken away from him, but then submits to his Father's will. Surely this was a wonderful 'hour', when Jesus declared his willingness to give his life to save mankind.

Eileen Ruffles